DC's Report:

Dear MPPC Members,

It is time for a change....I am stepping down from the DC role!

I have been wearing the MPPC DC hat for the past 5 years and whilst I have thoroughly enjoyed the role, it is time for me to pass the baton on. Now I know everybody cringes when we ask you to consider taking on a role with our club, this is your child's club and as parents, it is up to us to ensure the club continues to grow and prosper for our children.

The role of DC is not anywhere near as onerous as you may think. We have streamlined many aspects of the role to ensure it is very manageable for even the busiest parent. Believe me, I do not have a great deal of spare time, however I have managed this role with little stress over the years. It helps to be a 'people-person' with good communication skills, being organised is also a benefit but I guess that is with life in general when you have kids and ponies!

Please, I urge each and every one of you to consider this role, I am not going to continue the role in 2022, however, I will be happy to be an Assistant DC for this year and help the new DC anyway I can.

Please feel free to give myself or Danielle Smith a call to discuss if you are interested and would like more information.

Membership renewal is now open on the new JustGo platform, riders and supporters CANNPT attend any rallies or PC events unless renewal of membership is confirmed. All you need to renew is your membership number and password, and once again we are offering both Prepaid membership which includes all rallies for 2022 or a Flexi Membership where you pay upfront for the PCV and Insurance components, and a fee per rally when you RSVP to attend. All Club Supporters (Parents/Carers, Grandparents, other family members over the age of 18 who will attend 2 or more rallies or PC events over the coming year) must also renew or register, this is free to do so and does offer some limited insurance for accidents etc when attending PC rallies and events.

Look forward to seeing you at the February rally Sunday,

Marisa – DC MPPC
